

CROWD GATHERS TO LYNCH PORTER.

District Attorney Refuses to Issue Order for His Removal to Hugo-Porter Tells Why He Confessed.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 15.—District Attorney Meeker refused this morning to issue an order for the removal of John Porter, the young negro who confessed that he murdered Porter at Limon, to Hugo, the prison at Limon, where he was to be hanged. Mr. Meeker's refusal was based on the ground that Porter had confessed to the murder of Porter at Limon, where he was to be hanged. Mr. Meeker's refusal was based on the ground that Porter had confessed to the murder of Porter at Limon, where he was to be hanged.

WEDDING IN HIGH LIFE.

New York, Nov. 15.—Miss Louise Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, was married this afternoon in St. George's church, Stuyvesant Square, to Mr. Morgan. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Morgan. The bride was accompanied by her father and mother. The wedding was a very quiet affair.

STRONG ET AL. ENJOINED.

New York, Nov. 15.—Judge Lacombe, in the United States circuit court, today granted an injunction against the defendants in the case of Strong et al. The injunction was granted to prevent the defendants from interfering with the plaintiff's business.

Sam Strong Sued.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Nov. 15.—Two suits for $100,000 each have been filed in the district court here against Sam Strong, the well-known criminal. The suits were filed by the Colorado State Bank and the Colorado State Bank.

Exploration of Central Asia.

St. Petersburg, Friday, Nov. 2.—An international association for the exploration of Central Asia is being formed. The association is being formed by a group of scientists and explorers.

Social Conditions in New Possessions Are to be Investigated.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 15.—The National Council of Women today decided to investigate the social conditions in the new possessions of the United States. The council is composed of women from various parts of the country.

MUCH DEPENDS UPON THE CZAR.

Peace of the World Believed to be in His Hands.

London, Nov. 15.—The serious apprehensions with which the announcement of the fact that the czar was suffering from typhoid fever filled Europe, emphasize how much the peace of the world is believed to be dependent upon him. The czar's health is believed to be the key to the peace of the world.

Michigan's Population.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The population of Michigan as shown by the census bureau today is 2,429,982, an increase of 227,093, or 10.6 per cent.

A Very Deliberate Suicide.

Port Wayne, Ind., Nov. 15.—Frank Alderman, a wealthy real estate man, killed himself today. He was found dead in his study, with a bullet in his head.

Big Fee for Mr. Bryan.

New York, Nov. 15.—The Martin Engel Association, the Tammany hall organization, has formally voted to offer William J. Bryan a handsome fee to come to New York and take charge of the legal defense of the district captain of the eighth assembly district.

Trinity of Pekin Celebration.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 15.—The Russian newspapers are jubilantly celebrating the fortieth anniversary of the treaty of Peking by which Russia acquired immense amount of territory. The treaty was signed in 1860.

Crew of the High Flyer.

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—Captain Elliott, of the British tank steamer Georgian Prince, from Hull, England, to this port, reports this morning to the maritime exchange station at Reed Island, that he has on board the crew of fourteen of the Norwegian bark, High Flyer, which was abandoned in seas in a sinking condition. The crew was rescued by the Georgian Prince.

Nicaragua Minister Arrives.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The minister from Nicaragua, Senor Don Luis Corrales, arrived in Washington this morning after an absence of four months in Nicaragua, during which time he conferred with President Zelaya and the minister of foreign affairs.

Glasgow Free from Plague.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Surgeon General Wyman, of the Marine hospital service, this morning received the following cablegram from Surgeon Thomas at Glasgow: "Glasgow, Nov. 15.—Wyman, Washington. Port declared free from plague, November 14."

German Supplementary Credit.

Berlin, Nov. 15.—The reichstag bill providing for a third supplementary credit on account of the China expedition, fixes the salary of Field Marshal Count von Waldersee at 150,000 marks annually, with large extras. The bill also provides for a supplementary credit of 150,000 marks.

Sixth Cavalry to Stay in China.

Washington, Nov. 15.—General Chaffee has called the war department the following from Taku, under date of Nov. 14: "Sixth regiment, U. S. cavalry, will remain in China under command of Lieut. Col. Theodore J. Wint, with Troops I, K, L, M."

Yerkes Will Not Contest.

Washington, Nov. 15.—John W. Yerkes, late Republican candidate for governor of Kentucky, and who recently resigned as collector of internal revenue, called on the commissioner of internal revenue today. He says he has abandoned all idea of contesting Governor Beckham's election. He probably will be reappointed to his old position.

Consul General Moseley Dead.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The state department has been informed that R. A. Moseley, Jr., consul general of the United States at Yokohama, Japan. He was granted leave of absence by the department some weeks ago upon representations that his health demanded a change of climate. Mr. Moseley was appointed to his post January 7, 1899, from Alabama.

Agricultural Colleges Convention.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 15.—The annual convention of the American Agricultural colleges and experiment stations, today elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President—Prof. A. W. Harris, Orono, Maine.

"I'LL COME RIGHT BACK FROM SCHOOL."

But the Little Hero Could Not Keep His Promise—Pony Became Unruly—Train Struck and Killed Claude Sharp.

"I'll come right back from school," were the last words that bright little 11-year-old Claude Sharp said to his mother as he vaulted into the saddle and proceeded to ride to the Forest district school at 8:30 this morning. Three-quarters of an hour later his sorrowing father, John A. Sharp, the well known sheepman, brought all that remained of his darling boy home in a wagon.

PRICE OF BEETS RAISED.

Utah Sugar Company Fixes the New Rate at $4.75 a Ton.

Manager Cutler Will Go to Sanpete and Sevier to Look Into the Possibilities for a Factory There.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Utah Sugar company held at the office of President George Q. Cannon this morning, several steps were taken which will be of interest to the many people of this State who are concerned in the sugar beet industry. Manager Thomas R. Cutler made the usual monthly reports to the board, and stated that the factory would close down for the season about December 1st; 45,000 tons of beets had been received up to yesterday, and 38,838 tons had been cut. The prospects were that the tonnage would run slightly over 50,000, and the total amount of sugar turned out would be about 15,000,000 pounds.

REIFF CASE DECISION WITHHELD.

London, Nov. 15.—The Racing Calendar this afternoon announces that the stewards of the jockey club adjourned without reporting a decision in the case of Reiff, the trainer and jockey. The fact that the latter is riding today indicates the correctness of the Association's press forecast of November 14, that Lord Durban's Reiff, the Scotchman II at Doncaster would not be sustained. Both the Reiffs were much in evidence in the Derby race course at Derby. In the race for the Drake low selling plate of 250 sovereigns, for all ages, Lester Reiff had the mount on G. Cottrell's Reiff, the Scotchman II, which finished first in the race for the Elvaston castle selling plate.

CAUGHT AT POCATELLO.

A rumor was in circulation at 4 o'clock this afternoon that P. J. Conway, the ascending Salt Lake broker, had been apprehended at Pocatello, Idaho, a dispatch having been received here telling the story. Neither the sheriff's office, police department, nor U. S. marshal's office in this city knew anything of the matter. Messrs. Rich, Curry, attorneys for the insurance companies, also denied having learned anything about the alleged capture.

MORRIS GETS FIVE YEARS.

James H. Morris, a youth, appeared before Judge Booth this afternoon for arraignment upon an information, containing two separate counts, accusing him of housebreaking. He pleaded guilty to each charge and was sentenced to two and one-half years in the State prison on each count, making five years in all. The prisoner broke into the McAfee and Wilcox residences. He came here a few weeks ago from Colorado, and is regarded by the police as a hardened criminal.

LATE LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. W. Bramall writes that the account in Saturday's "News," stating that E. L. Sloan presided over the company in which late Samuel L. Evans crossed the ocean in 1883 was an error. The president was W. Bramall. The "News" statement was obtained from the accounts published at the time of the death of Mr. Evans.

CLEARING HOUSE REPORT.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 15, 1900. Today's clearings $57,333.80. Same day last year $77,064.67.

ORE AND BULLION REPORT.

Mingo bullion $3,900. Silver and lead ores $15,400. Cyanides $2,900.

BAMBERGER & McILLAN.

Bullion $5,733.

LYNCH AND KING ARE TO BE SHOT.

Murderers of Col. Godfrey Prowse Sentenced by Judge Booth to Suffer the Death Penalty on Friday, January 11, 1901—They Choose Shooting as the Method.

James Lynch and Robert L. King, the men convicted of the murder of Godfrey Prowse, at the Sheep Ranch gambling house, on the night of September 14th last, were sentenced by Judge Booth this afternoon, to suffer the death penalty. The condemned men chose to be shot. The date of their execution was set for Friday, January 11th, 1901.

KING SAYS HE'S INNOCENT.

King was then commanded to stand up. When asked if he had anything to say before sentence was pronounced, the prisoner clutched the rail of the desk in front of him and in a faltering voice gave utterance to the following: "Only this, I wish to say I was not concerned in this murder. I was put in this position by Deputy (Detective) Sheets. That's all I care to say."

THROWN FROM A BUGGY.

Hans Petersen of Mill Creek Died in the Hospital Today.

The friends of Elder Hans Petersen of Mill Creek will be pained to learn of his sudden death which occurred at 3 a. m. today at the Holy Cross hospital. The immediate cause of his death was peritonitis, caused by internal injuries sustained in being thrown from a buggy on last Friday night.

LITTLE HOPE OF RECOVERY.

Death of Elder Edward Partridge Would Not be a Surprise.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS."] Provo, Utah, Nov. 15.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon Elder Edward Partridge, president of the Utah Stake of Z. L. was still alive, but there was very little hope of his recovery. The end is liable to come at almost any time.

SALT LAKE POSTOFFICE.

Will Remain in Dooly Building for Ten Years More.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 15, 1900.—The postmaster general today ordered the renewal of the lease of the present premises of the Salt Lake postoffice for a term of ten years from April 1, 1901, at annual rental of $4,500 including heat, light, equipment and additional space.